REPUBLICANS HELD ENTHUSIA-STIC MEETING AT LEE CEN-TER WEDNESDAY.

FOUR STIRRING ADDRESSES

J. H. Byers, Adam Cliffe and State's Attorney Edwards Also Addressed Gathering.

One hundred persons nearly filled the hall at Lee Center last evening when the Republican party of Lee Center opened its 1914 campaign. The Lee Center orchestra furnished the music, playing before the speaker's audience with several beautiful selections between talks.

The meeting was highly enthusiastic, marked by much hearty applause and did a great deal of good for the county, legislative and congressional candidates.

The main speeches of the evening were made by John H. Byers, secretary to Congressman McKenzie, Adam Cliffe, candidate for State Senator from this district, and State's Attorney Harry Edwards.

The meeting was presided over by Sherman Shaw of Lee Center, who introduced the various candidates in a graceful manner.

The opening speech was one of his fiery, inspiring and thoroughly interesting talks. He made a plea for the replacing of the Republican party in power in the name of humanity and the nation. His plea was based on the march of the men who are this fall asking the people of Lee county to let them perform the duties of the various county, district and state offices. The speaker declared that he was not basing his plea upon a platform, for platforms decay, but on the march of the men behind him, the candidates, for manhood lives forever. The orator referred to the war in Europe, over half the people of the world at war and although the United States is still at peace the situation is terrifyingly dangerous and delicate, and, said the speaker, "the people of this nation must now turn to the party and must now place their safety in."

ELECTION OFFICIALS OF FOURTH PRECINCT NOT TO BLAME FOR ALLEGED IRREGULARITY

In answer to the allegation that because all the ballots cast in the 4th precinct in Tuesday's park election were placed in the same ballot box the vote there was subject to challenge, it is pointed out that any irregularity that may have existed was not the fault of the judges and clerks of election, but was due to the failure of the proper officials to provide two

Democrats Agree On War Tax In Caucus On Measure

Washington, Oct. 8.—After an all day session the Democratic caucus approved the war revenue bill. The estimated revenue from it will be $108,000,000, or $3,000,000 more than it was estimated would flow from the house measure.

The caucus sacrificed $450,000 in revenue by striking out the tax on brokers. It threw overboard $25,000 more in revenue by cutting the tax on sleeping car tickets from 2 to 1 cent.

This action was taken on motion of Senator Lewis of Illinois, who tried to have the reduction made in the caucus the night before, but lost by two votes.

Depends on Beer Production.

The estimates of the revenues that will flow from the new bill are subject to the contingency that the production of beer in the United States will not continue to fall off at the rate it has for the last few months. If the reduced production continues, the total revenues to be raised by the bill will fall below $100,000,000, the amount called for by President Wilson.

Senator O'Gorman put through an amendment directing the finance committee to report a graduated tax on the production of cigarettes in lieu of the $24 flat rate which the house bill taxes cigarette manufacturers. The new scale will be worked out after the formula applied in taxing manufacturers of tobacco and cigars and the graduated scale will be between $6 and $96.

Proprietary Medicines Hit.

All the amendments reported by the finance committee for new war taxes were adopted by the caucus. Probably the most important of these was the tax on proprietary medicines, perfumes, and cosmetics, chewing gum and sparkling wines out of which it is expected to raise $7,000,000 in revenue. The other stamp taxes carried by the bill, it is estimated, return about $30,000,000.

One of the matters which was not finally concluded by the caucus was the proposed tax on domestic wines. The caucus finally agreed to leave the tax as the senate committee fixed it in section 2 of the bill which provides all wines, liquors or cordials containing more than 3 per cent saccharine matter and on all wines containing more than 14 per cent of absolute alcohol, a tax of 20 cents a gallon, while dry wines which contain not more than 14 per cent of alcohol shall pay but 8 cents.

WHITE MAN BACKED JONES EFFORTS TO SECURE A REVOLVER

POLICE LEARN THAT HE WAS URGED TO SECURE WEAP-ON BY LOCAL MAN.

The police have received the information that a local white man was backing the efforts of Charles Jones, colored, to secure a revolver Tuesday evening following his release from custody on the charge of disturbing the peace. The man was seen walking down the street with Jones after he had paid his fine and two gentlemen overheard the conversation. Jones was directed to purchase a gun and told where he might get one.

When cross examined by the police yesterday regarding his efforts to purchase a gun, Jones said that when he inquired about revolvers he did not have the money and stated that he was merely running a bluff. The authorities place little credence in his story.

A colored woman of this city has told the police that she intended circulating a petition to have Jones chased out of town and this is expected to be in circulation within a few days.

CARRANZA TO TOUR U. S., SAYS FRIEND

Richard M. Cole Makes Statement in Washington.

Washington, Oct. 8.—General Carranza intends to visit the United States next month and make a five month's tour of the country, according to announcement made here by Richard M. Cole, a friend of the Mexican chief, who has just arrived in Washington from Mexico City.

"Carranza is eager to retire to private life," said Mr. Cole in his announcement. "He is worn out and only a sense of duty keeps him engaged in directing the constitutional course."

"He has promised to visit me in Los Angeles in January and make a five months' tour of the United States. He warmly admires the United States and her institutions and every reform he contemplates in Mexico is fashioned after American models."

"Americans have often taken his patriotic Mexican stand as being inimical to this country. This is false and unfair. He has the highest respect for President Wilson and the warmest feeling of friendship toward the whole nation. Americans will have a friend with him as the head of the Mexican government."

Chicago, West Side Ball Park, Oct. 8.—Cubs and Sox met at the National League grounds here this afternoon for their second game of the city championship series; an enormous crowd packed into the park to cheer their favorites.

Schalk was named to catch, while O'Day picked Cheney and Bresnahan as his batters. The batting order of the teams is:

The State Supreme Court has granted leave to the prosecution in the dishonored case of the People ex. rel. vs. Arthur G. Harris to file additional charges and granted Harris until the first day of the December term of court to file his answer to these charges.

News as London Hears It.

London, Oct. 8.—Admission of disaster to German arms and frightful losses of life in battle is contained in a dispatch from Berlin received here by way of The Hague, which states that the Kaiser's forces have been compelled to abandon the offensive in East Prussia and have been driven in retreat from Ossowaz.

In the fighting at Augustow and Suwalki the German artillerymen were literally slaughtered. One German battery lost all its men and cavalrymen were drafted to serve the guns. Even then the Germans were compelled to flee before the Russians. Forty-third Casualty List 10,000.

GOVERNMENT MOVED.
London, Oct. 8.—The seat of the Belgian government has been moved from Antwerp to Ostend.

BOMBARDMENT STARTED.
London, Oct. 8.—A dispatch from Ghent says: "Antwerp was furiously mobbed throughout the night. Shells from 42-centimeter guns were falling early this morning near the cathedral."

London, Oct. 8.—All eyes are turned toward Antwerp whose fate is regarded here as important out of all proportion to the number of men engaged in the attack and defense. Germany must not only keep an open door into France, it is argued here, but must be prepared to close the back door to Essen.

The most important military center in case of a long stubborn fight will be General Von Kluck, commander of the German right end.

PATHETIC PICTURES.

The disaster of war has presented no picture of greater desolation than the host of refugees fleeing from the last Belgian stronghold. Residents are transporting invalids, cripples and occupants of insane asylums. It is a pathetic sight to see poor people carrying on their backs hopelessly maimed or idiotic relatives, the railroad trains to the north being crowded.

DROPPED BOMBS.

The flight of the unfortunates has been accelerated by the appearance of Zeppelins, which have dropped bombs around the city. Already scores of people have been killed.

King Remains.

King Albert is still at Antwerp. The only hope of the allies reaching out to help is almost exhausted, although the garrison at Antwerp has been reinforced with fresh troops and more guns, probably British.

The Germans have crossed the Nethe and their offensive is approaching the inner ring of forts.

DIXON BUSINESS MEN WILL ATTEND BIG STERLING CELEBRATION THIS EVENING

Four bands will play throughout the day and a banquet will be held at the Galt House in the evening at 6 o'clock. There will be more band concerts and a parade in the evening and promptly at 8 o'clock Mayor Platt will turn the button and the new street lights will be thrown on. Mayor Brinton has been invited and will attend the banquet at the Galt House.

The Forty-third German casualty list, just made public, contains the names of 10,600 dead, wounded or missing, headed by the name of Major General Von Walter, who was wounded at Tarnovka, Russia Poland.

Six Austrian Ships Sunk.

More than 600 men, officers and crew, lost their lives when six Austrian warships were sunk by contact with submarine mines off the coast of Dalmatia, in the Adriatic sea. Four torpedo boats and two torpedo boat destroyers, which were scouting for the Anglo French fleet, went to the bottom within a few minutes after striking the explosives, which are believed to have been placed by the Austrian government.

WORLDS SERIES TO START TOMORROW

FIRST GAME OF BIG CONTEST WILL BE PLAYED IN PHILADELPHIA.

BOSTON BADLY HANDICAPPED

An Injury to Third Baseman Smith

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—Tomorrow afternoon the first game of the world's series of 1914, will be played in this city, when the Boston National league team will meet Connie Mack's wonderful American league aggregation.

The Boston team is greatly handicapped by the injury to third baseman Smith who broke his leg Tuesday, but the members of Stallings' crew will fight gamely.

New York, Oct. 8.—While Philadelphia has enjoyed a big slice of the honors which accompany the right to be a contender for the world's baseball championship, Boston has not been wanting for a share in the glories of the annual championship series. When the clubs representing the two cities meet in the opening game for this year's world's pennant it will mark the fifth time that Philadelphia has entered such a struggle and it will be the third for Boston. Had the New York Nationals not refused to play with the Hub players in 1904, the Boston Americans would have had an additional opportunity of fighting for the championship. However, Boston claimed the world's honors for that year by default.

Since the American and National league pennant winners first played each other in 1903, the Athletics of Philadelphia have played four times and won three post season series. The Boston Americans won the two that they fought to a finish first beating the Pittsburgh Nationals in 1903. After waiting eight years from the time of the disappointing refusal of the Giants in 1904 the Red Sox had the satisfaction of taking Manager McGraw's men into camp, scoring their second victory in the banner series of 1912.

Nationals' Surprise.

Hitherto the American League was solely responsible for Boston's world's baseball honors, but this year the Nationals, or "Braves," which they are aptly called, after a rush, which astonished all followers of the national game are in the forefront of the battle. The fight of the Braves is without a parallel in the annals of baseball. From the last place to first was their accomplishment, and this within a period of five weeks.

The Braves were lowest of the eight teams in the National League on July 18. On August 23 they had mounted to first place, tied with the Giants. Ten days later, September 2, the Bostonians went into the lead with a clear title, and it was September 8 before they finally entrenched themselves at the top. But the historians of baseball will mark their performance as: Last place to first in 36 days. A record.

Only one team within the memory of present day fans has nearly approached the extent of the Braves' remarkable progress. That was the Chicago White Sox of 1906 in their dash through the American League teams from seventh place to first. The White Sox were a team of generally appreciated high rank, bowed low with bad breaks during the first of the season. The Bostonians, on the other hand, were dubbed the Lowly Braves, with but little to indicate warrant to better name.

A New By-Word.

"Tinker to Evers to Chance," a by-word in baseball circles for years as representing the speediest fielding on the diamond in the production of double plays, has been supplanted by the relay "Maranville to Evers to Schmidt." The combination play of the old Cubs' infield has at last been bettered, largely through the assistance of one of its members, Johnny Evers, now playing the keystone sack for Boston. Evers and Maranville go into the world series with one of the most remarkable fielding records in the history of the game. Within ten days of the close of the National League season this pair figured in nearly 100 double plays.

Evers, playing an improved game at second base, has nevertheless been outdone by his younger club mate. Maranville took part in eighty-five of the double plays carried off by the Braves, a world's record. With the more numerous opportunities that were developed by shortstop position, he was responsible for the inception of fifty-three of these plays. This bettered by a dozen the record of forty-three double plays held for several years by Fletcher of the New York Giants. Maranville has been middleman in twenty-six of these combination plays, and at the receiving end of six. With fewer opportunities Evers has taken part in sixty-five double plays, has started twenty-three, made the put-out and assist in thirty-three and has finished nine. "Maranville to Evers to Schmidt" in that order, has been the way of twenty-seven double plays. Thirty-nine have been accomplished by these three players.

The team the Athletics will send against the Braves will be in all probability the same nine men who started in the 1913 series against the New York Giants, barring accidents. Chief Bender is looked upon as the sure money pitcher and there is no doubt that he will be sent in with Wally Schang on the receiving end. The Athletics, while the players are as a whole young in years, form a truly veteran world's series team. With the exception of Eddie Murphy and Schang, all the regulars in the 1914 series played against the Giants in 1911. Bender and Plank, along with Harry Davis, Mack's lieutenant who occasionally goes into a game as a pinch batter, played in the world's series against New York nine years ago.

In Good Condition.

Physically the world's champions will go into the series in good condition. "Home Run" Baker, who had been below par during part of August and September, has rested and he will be in good trim to worry the opposing pitchers. He had been suffering from a cold and later from a badly wrenched side. His hitting was affected but he refused to lay off while the wonderful championship race was undecided.

The champions are well provided with utility men. Walsh who played with the New York Highlanders in the early part of the year, and Davies, the young college pitcher who is being trained by Mack as an outfielder because of his clean-up hitting, ability and speed, are fit to take and outfield position. They have Kopf, a utility infielder of no mean ability. Captain Thomas, the world's series veteran, can substitute for either Schang or Lapp behind the plate and Harry Davis still has some ability as a pinch hitter.

In Philadelphia the fans refer to the Athletics affectionately as "The most perfect baseball machine in the world," and an interesting fact developed in going over the records gives strength to this estimate. The Athletics have played in four world's series and with the exception of Mathewson and McGinnity, no pitcher who ever faced them lasted the entire game. All have been taken out. Mathewson also has been knocked out. In 1905 McGinnity pitched in two contests. He was taken out of one and won the other. On the other hand no Athletic pitcher has ever been knocked off the rubber. The single exception, where a Philadelphia hurler was taken out was in 1911 when Coombs, the "iron man" suffered a rupture in the middle of the game and left the box several innings later because of his injury.

LEE CENTER WON AN ERRATIC GAME

DEFEATED DIXON STARS SUNDAY AFTERNOON BY SCORE OF 10 TO 6.

A picked team of local ball players going under the name of Dixon Stars met defeat at the hands of the fast Lee Center team at Lee Center last Sunday afternoon by a score of 10 to 6. The Lee Center sluggers got to the delivery of Haley and Whitebread for ten hits and these coupled with the erratic play in the field was the cause of the local team's defeat.

The Stars hit both Beeneey and Callahan freely but each of them struck out seven men during their reign on the slab. Haley struck out ten Lee Center batsmen.

The hands of the one party that they know will stand upon principles tried and true and right, and will dare to do its duty, the Republican party."

The speaker said: "There will be war in this country in a few short weeks. The implements of warfare will not be swords or rifles or cannons or bombs, but pencils and ballots and you, Mr. Voter will be called upon to fight for your country just as surely as the men of Europe are fighting for theirs. You must direct your missiles at the foes of the Republican party."

The speaker also spoke of the way Dr. Wedderspoon, the famous eastern orator who appeared at Rock River Assembly last season and who during his talk told his audience that Congressman John C. McKenzie "is a man among men and he deserves the support of this entire community," and Dr. Wedderspoon was pastor of a Washington, D. C. church and was in a position to know what kind of work McKenzie is doing in Washington.

Cliffe Makes Speech.

Adam Cliffe, of Sycamore, the Republican candidate for state senator, was called upon to make a speech and Mr. Cliffe talked to the people of Lee Center for half an hour or so. He told them some interesting things about DeKalb county. He got to talking about the soil doctor they have over there and he forgot about politics for a little while, explaining the good work that Soil Director Eckhard is doing in DeKalb. He also described some of the work that had been done in his county regarding the consolidated country schools, which he believed would come in time in all parts of the county and solve many of the present day difficulties. While he was talking about schools he told of the way the county superintendent of schools of DeKalb county had praised the county superintendent of schools in Lee county. The DeKalb

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making it at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiaecol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Do not fail to hear U. S. Senator Sherman Friday evening at the Family Theater.

The Wants have helped many.

Hart Schaffner & Marx fall styles for young men

If you young men really knew, and were convinced of the things we can tell you about Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes, and our reasons for selling them, and for saying so much about them, you'd never buy or wear any other clothes.

LOOK at the illustration here; you see what it represents; if you are or have been a college man you've been a part of just such a group around the banjo many times. It shows a number of good styles, especially designed for young men. We have them here; the new fabrics are particularly beautiful and of unusual excellence. Such clothes as these are real economy although they may cost more than some clothes you'll see.

We can't sell a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit at less than $18; there are a good many men who won't pay over $15 as a rule; these are the men who ought to get acquainted with these clothes and realize how much cheaper they are at $18 than any other clothes you can buy. If you'll pay $20 so much the better for you; at $25 we'll show you the biggest value ever seen in clothes. We have still better ones at $30, $35; the important thing about all of them is that the value is in them at the price.

ALL CLAIM ADVANCES IN BATTLE

BOMBARDMENT IS ON.

Berlin reports the capture in the field of four heavy batteries of 52 field guns, many machine guns. The active bombardment of the city is under way.

BELGIANS' FATE?

The fate of Belgium's army is the striking feature of the day's war news. The entire fighting force of the Belgians has been concentrated at Antwerp, the fall of which city before the German's guns is very gravely threatened.

THEIR ALTERNATIVE

If the city falls the Belgians will, in case they refuse to surrender, have the alternative of fighting their way through the German infested country in an effort to join the allies, or of retreating to Holland, where they will be interned until the war ends. The latter course would eliminate Belgium as a factor in the big struggle.

NO CHANGE IN FRANCE

The French official report issued this afternoon indicates little change in the battle line in northern France.
Violent attacks by the Germans in the Woivre district have been repulsed, it says.

CONFLICTING REPORTS.

The Russian report that the Germans were repulsed at Niemen and had retreated and are now entrenched along the Prussian frontier is denied by the Germans, who claim that the Russians were repulsed with a loss of 27,000 prisoners. Berlin also asserts that in minor engagements near Ivangorod in Russian Poland, 4800 Russians were captured.

MINOR DEVELOPMENTS.

Berlin papers report that a British Jap attack on Tsing-Tau was repulsed.
The report that Gen. Von Moltke has been removed as chief of the German staff proves untrue.
Vienna claims that the Russians have been driven out of Hungary.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS" CAN'T HARM TENDER STOM-ACH OR BOWELS.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels which have become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipated poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle.
Look carefully and see if it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

MISTAKEN AS TO ILLINOIS.

The Bloomington Pantagraph has the following to say on the subject of the waning of the Bull Moose party in Illinois:

The Springfield, Mass., Republican says that "Mr. Roosevelt's campaigning in Illinois has not met a popular response out of the ordinary." The same paper says that in no other state are circumstances more favorable to the Progressive party. This seems to be the general opinion in the east but it is founded on a misapprehension of the facts. Certain papers have represented the receptions extended Mr. Roosevelt as exceeding in interest what were witnessed two years ago when he was campaigning for president. But the fact is that while large numbers may have come out to see him the numbers who have remained to hear him have not been large. It was so in most places, when he spoke in Kansas and was certainly so at his meeting in Springfield. Through a failure of his voice or a failure of interest his hearers for the most part left the hall before his address was near concluded.

Certain papers speak of the enthusiastic character of his meetings, but Mr. Roosevelt has lost his hold since it has become apparent that there is no chance of success for the party he founded. Nothing succeeds like success and nothing fails like failure and with the public mind convinced that Mr. Roosevelt is speaking for a forlorn hope his following has faded away. If the Progressive outlook is better in Illinois than elsewhere its case is indeed hopeless. If it does not show up next November as a mere scattering remnant all present indications count for nothing.

The total vote cast for United States senator at the recent primaries is officially announced, except as to Cook county, the figures from that county being unofficial. Sherman, republican, received 137,182 votes and his opponent, Mason, received 59,623 and Childs, the other republican, 11,486. Sherman's plurality, 86,549.

Sullivan, democrat, received 137,650 votes; Stringer, 102,814; Woods, 23,037, and O'Hara, 14,989. Sullivan's plurality, 28,036.

The vote cast for Raymond Robins, progressive, is given at 17,652 outside of Cook county, the figures from that county not being at hand.

It is true that Mr. Robins had no opposition, but any one who can find encouragement in the showing he has made has strong faith indeed. The eastern papers must revise their estimate of the situation in Illinois.

Dodging Duty

By WALT MASON

It's a shame that high class men for office will not stand in line though asked, again and yet again, this duty all of them decline. The offices all go to skates, to patriots who want the good men will not run! We want good men with honest hearts, strong men abhorring shams and tricks, brought up in offices and marts, and not in stews of politics. And if perchance they ever rise, responsive to our eager calls, we'll batter them with campaign lies, and rattle them with hoots and bawls. We'll show that they are only big in self-esteem, their virtue slim; we'll prove they stole a widow's pig, and swiped a soldier's wooden limb. We'll deal in fury and in sound until, disgusted, they retire; we'll hire cheap sleuths to rake around and dig their records from the mire. We'll quickly jolt them from the groove in which they spend their quiet lives; with affidavits we will prove that every day they beat their wives. Why don't our good men save the realm, and bleed and die in proper style? The country needs them at the helm—we'll surely make it worth their while!

Bischof

Afternoon Suits are Irrisistably Charming

Can you imagine anything more becoming than the Bischof model illustrated here? Soft material falls in graceful folds to form the underskirt, the collar and cuffs, while chiffon, broadcloth, so popular this season, is used to develop the accordin plaited tunic and the cape-coat combination. Note how the buttons are used to gather in the fullness at the waist and the sleeves.

There are many others equally as becoming and equally as attractive. If you're looking for a dressy costume that exactly expresses your personality, we are sure you will find exactly what you are looking for in one of these Bischof models.

Dramatic Notes

AT THE FAMILY.

Commencing Thursday evening, October 8th, the bill at the Family should prove a most joyful event for theatregoers in Dixon. The feature attraction, viz., the Five Old Veterans, in their offering entitled "In the Days of '61," should prove a revelation to the vaudeville loving public. This attraction, which has been secured by special effort on the part of Manager Plein, will doubtless duplicate its numerous previous successes at the Majestic and Palace Music hall in Chicago as well as other leading playhouses throughout the United States.

As an extra attraction a genuine novelty has been secured in the Duo known as Adams & Gilbert in songs and dances, offered in most unique style that is most acceptable.

The motion picture program is of an exclusive nature and will conclude the evening's program in brilliant style.

A Night With a Million.
Tim the Terror.
The False and the True.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Tonight the 14th episode of the Million Dollar Mystery will be shown at the Princess. The black hundred are determined to rid the Hargrave home of its occupants so that a thorough search may be made for the million dollars. That night one of the order waits until all have retired and he opens a window and enters the library. Taking three volumes from the shelves he places packages of money between the leaves. As he is departing Jones appears, levels a pistol at him and demands that he halt. The crook leaps through a window. Jones' shot missing. The prowler goes to a hotel and writes a letter to the secret service but Norton is there also and picks up the blotter and reads enough to make him hasten to Jones. They find the counterfeit money, but lay a deep plot which means the installation of the dictaphone. The officers arrest Jones, Florence and Norton, who protest That night the black hundred appear, enter the premises and look diligently, talking of their success the while. Hearing by means of the dictaphone Norton and the police who are with him, follow the band and actually got into the building where the counterfeiting press is located. They see one of the conspirators at the head of the stairs and rush for him. The stairs collapse and they are plunger into the basement, and their plans fail.

A TRULY GREAT MELODRAMA.

Residents of this city who make it a practice of seeing only the best in Chicago theatricals, should not fail to avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing "Under Cover" the stirring melodrama in which H. B. Warner and his capable company are now appearing in at Geo. M. Cohan's Grand Opera House. And they should do this as soon as possible, before the play's popularity makes it impossible to secure seats.

"Under Cover" has been declared by the newspaper reviewers of Boston, New York and Chicago to be the best melodrama written in recent years—in fact even better than its sister play "Within the Law."

"Under Cover" gently tenses the nerves to an evening of thrills and a continuous merging of surprises that make the night bubble with mirthful, restful excitement. Just healthy "hide and seek" exercise of the emotions, that will revive to consciousness the most willfully base. It is a joy maker, a laugh round up and a grouch muzzler that will split the lip of the veriest pessimist.

It abounds with bright, snappy and breezy dialogue in addition to its delightful love story.

It is said that H. B. Warner, who handles most skillfully and pleasingly the leading role, is at the best of his brilliant career—the latter of which includes some clever work in "Alias Jimmy Valentine" and "The Ghost Breaker."

FULL CONGRESSIONAL VICTORY

The Probable Result of the Anti-Wilson Feeling Will Be a Solid Republican Congress.

E. O. Phillips, political writer on the Chicago Tribune, who has been investigating political conditions in various states and his reports on all are along the same line. The latest was published today and concerns the state of Michigan. He says:

"Michigan is one state where a definite anti-Wilson sentiment has been uncovered.

The feeling against the Washington administration pervades business men, the laboring classes, and extends to many of the farmers. It has been smoldering for the last month and has been fanned into flame within the last forty-eight hours by the war tax legislation now in the making at Washington.

The uprising against the president and the Democratic congress is of sufficient proportions it is believed to give substance to the strong Republican claim, put out today at the Republican state headquarters that a solid Republican delegation of thirteen will be returned to congress in November. This prediction, if borne out, would involve the defeat of Congressman Frank E. Doremus of Detroit, present chairman of the Democratic national congressional campaign committee.

Auto Tax Hits Michigan.

If congress insists upon including the 50 cents per horsepower tax upon automobile makers in the war tax measure, it will mean an assessment of something close to $8,000,000 on Michigan industries. The state is close to a revolt against what is claimed to be discrimination against a natural protective tariff state forced by the southern Democrats. The anger is not appeased by the refusal of the finance committee of the senate at Washington to grant a hearing to Michigan men who wanted to protest against the rate.

The tariff and the Wilson policies as to revenue, therefore, have become sudden and the distinct political issue in Michigan, and the congressional elections next month in this state probably will furnish a more reliable test of sentiment toward the Wilson administration than those of the most of the mid-western states.

The anti-Democratic uprising may imperil the chances for re-election of Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, the present Democratic incumbent, who until now has ruled as a 10 to 7 favorite as against former Governor Chase S. Sarnoff, the Republican nominee, and Henry R. Pattengill, former state superintendent of public instruction, the Progressive candidate.

Tries to Kill Wife and Self.

Drigouin, Ill., Oct. 8.—After failing in an attempt to shoot and kill his wife, James Watson, a coal miner, placed the weapon to his head and fired. One of his eyes was blown out and he is expected to die.

Sisters Accused of Murder.

Dixon, Ill., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Lee Hutton and Lillian Byers, sisters, were indicted by the Whiteside county grand jury. They are accused of the murder of their brother, Emanuel Byers, last August.

Held Burglar One Hour.

Alton, Ill., Oct. 8.—W. C. Dennison held a negro burglar in the cellar of his home an hour with a revolver pointed at him while Mrs. Dennison went to get a policeman.

CHILD MYSTERIOUSLY SHOT; IN ROOM ALONE

13-Year-Old Sister Only Other Person in House at Time.

East St. Louis, Ill., Oct. 8.—The East St. Louis police are investigating the mysterious shooting of a two year old girl at the home of her parents in East St. Louis.

Mrs. Tony Milleson, mother of the girl, had gone to the police station in an effort to secure the release of her husband, who was arrested on a charge of discharging firearms within the city limits. During her absence the girl was playing in a front room while Bernice, a thirteen year old sister, was washing dishes in a kitchen. Bernice told the police that she heard a shot and ran into the front room, where she found a revolver on the floor, beside the baby, which had a bullet wound in its forehead.

It is believed the child will die. The police do not believe the child shot herself accidentally.

The Trey O' Hearts

But—and here was the grievance—they hadn't bargained to be shot at with pistols. And precisely that outrage had been put upon them during and subsequent to the moment of rescue.

It was unhappy Mr. Barcus who precipitated the affair. This gentleman was suffering from a severe sprain to his sense of decent pride. In the service of Miss Rose Trine and her betrothed, Mr. Law, Barcus had blackened his face and hands to the hue of ebony and had garmented himself in the garb of a Pullman porter, surrendering himself to humiliating service to those aboard the special, suffering their insolence and scorn without a murmur, but with the tides of wrath mounting ever higher in his bosom.

And now, when at length he had won his freedom from that ignominious servitude, it was only to be sworn at and vilified, as a common nigger, by railroad hands!

It was the fireman (to be just) who brought the row to a focus by a slighting reference to that "shiftless and misbegotten dingo."

He repented quite promptly. Mr. Barcus jumped for his throat with a bellow of rage. The brakeman leaped for his shovel and brandished it threateningly. Mr. Barcus made nothing of that; he closed in without hesitation and got the fireman by the throat, proceeding to shake the breath out of his body with the greatest good will and dispatch. In the course of this entertainment the fireman slipped on the cab platform, trod on nothing, and went over backwards, taking Mr. Barcus with him to the ballast.

At almost the same moment Mr. Law, attempting to restrain the engineer from going to the assistance of his fellow-worker, ducked in under a vicious swing for his chin, grappled with his foe, tripped him up—and went with his to the ground on the opposite side of the locomotive from that occupied by Mr. Barcus and the fireman.

For the next several seconds he was very busy indeed keeping his face out of the ballast. The engineer was a heavy man, but active and infuriated. He fought like a demon unchained. It was all very exciting. Mr. Law was even beginning to enjoy it when he heard a woman shriek. At the same instant revolvers began to pop.

Mr. Law released his foe almost as quickly as he was released. Both rose as one man, to find Judith Trine beside them, a little smile of excitement playing round her lips as she looked up the track and watched the special slow down to a stop—several persons on the back platform plying busy trigger-fingers all the while.

As these last threw open the platform gates and dropped to the ballast, still perforating the air with many bullets, Mr. Law, Miss Judith Trine, and that late belligerent, the engineer, turned simultaneously and sought the rear of the tender.

On the opposite side they found Rose Trine and Mr. Barcus standing uncertainly above the body of the fireman, who, it appeared, had stunned himself in falling and remained insensible.

The appearance of Law and Judith from behind the tender, closely pursued by the engineer, who was in turn closely pursued by gentlemen with revolvers, stirred Barcus and Rose to action. Alan passed him at a round pace, pausing only long enough to seize Rose and drag her with him toward the special. Judith flung him a phrase of well-meant advice in passing:

"Come along, you simpleton—unless you want to be shot down where you stand!"

Mr. Barcus acted on that advice, as immediately as resentfully. Judith Trine was little before him at the steps of the Pullman; Mr. Law had already assisted Rose aboard. Mr. Barcus ungraciously gave place to the lady; his ingrained chivalry sorely strained by bullets that kicked among the ballast round his feet.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

"Come inside," Law suggested, "and introduce me to the brakeman. I presume I've got to fix things up with him." (Continued tomorrow)

AUSTRIANS KEPT IN IGNORANCE OF RESERVES SUFFERED BY THEIR ARMY IN EASTERN BATTLES

(Associated Press Correspondent)
London, Sept. 24—A news letter received by the Reuter Telegraph Co. from Venice reads:

"According to word received here from Vienna, the Austrian public is waiting in dumb patience for some definite news as to what is really happening in Galicia and along the Serbian frontier. Although there is an uneasy feeling that affairs are not going well for Austria, the mass of people still pin their faith on Germany, and are confident that no matter what happens now, the Germans will eventually save the situation.

Many others, however, disgusted with the ambiguous and scanty reports from official sources, are beginning to disregard the newspapers altogether. Ever since it became known that Russia was making such startling headway in Galicia the Vienna newspaper comments have been most guarded. The editorials deal chiefly with the German campaign in Western Europe, thus seeking to divert the public attention from the Austrian reverses at Lemberg and along the Serbian border, but the presence of 70,000 Polish refugees from Galicia, added to the constant arrival of train loads of wounded has considerably discounted the effects of official reticence.

Industry Paralyzed.

Commerce and industry are paralyzed throughout the dual monarchy and the stoppage of exports threatens to ruin some of the larger industries, notably the sugar trade. Millions of pounds of sugar are sent annually from Austria to Great Britain, India and other points abroad. Refiners are anxiously endeavoring to find some other means of getting their product to England by indirect route. To relieve the stress of the financial situation the government has decided to organize a War Credit bank capital of $1,000,000 besides a number of loan institutions for advancing money without interest in order to carry on various industrial enterprises.

Numerous suggestions have been made for boycotting goods coming in from hostile countries, notably England and France, but they have met with scanty support in the most influential commercial circles. The Prague Chamber of Commerce refuses to endorse such a proposal, saying that it would be quite useless at the present moment besides being dangerous for Austrian commercial interests later on. Outside Vienna and Budapest the aspect of the whole country is lifeless and apparently denuded of active men, and presents an appearance of strange and oppressive quietness. Great factories are completely shut down, furnaces are out, doors are locked and not even a watchman is visible in the streets. The small towns are deserted save for a few children here and there and there are scarcely any workers in the fields. The few who may be seen are chiefly women and occasionally old men.

Women Do Work.

The women are now performing the most laborious tasks, even to the loading of freight cars. Trains are running on most lines on restricted schedules. There are hardly any passengers and solitary soldiers may be seen guarding stations, bridges and tunnels, but bodies of troops even in small numbers are rarely seen. All left from where a heavy fire has done much damage to our line. Many of us are down and others crawl to the rear to get their wounds attended to. Now, fire! The crest of the trench becomes our target. The rattle of musketry from both sides becomes deafening. One of us will have to give in. Fire, fire! We have learned how to shoot straight—the fire in the trench weakens; the trench itself is veiled now by a cloud of dust raised by our bullets.

"Advance," comes the command again. We are all impelled forward by the mad desire to get at them. One hundred meters separates us from the enemy. Many sacrifices are demanded in the final charge. Again the enemy's fire weakens—then it almost ceases.

"Advance," shouts somebody. The fellows must be driven out of the trenches. Some of them already are leaving, but our bullets lay them low as they run. Another halt—another advance. Only fifty meters to the trench—barbed wire entanglements block our progress.

"But the fellows in the trenches have lost faith in themselves. They desert their positions in masses—running, scrambling, stumbling, falling—some in a manner that shows they will never rise again. We forget to take cover. Standing, we pour our fire into the groups of fleeing men. Good comrades fall—cry for help—bid you farewell with the last breath. Farewell good comrades, we must advance.

"Soon we have disposed of the enemy, who has laid low so many of us. The barbed wire is hacked through with our bayonets. We reach the trench. It is filled with writhing, struggling bodies. We aimed well. In the ditch lies a kaleidoscopic mixture of bodies swathed in blue and red—and pale ones from which glassy eyes looked into the azure sky.

"But on with the pursuit. Some of us remain behind to disarm the wounded so that they cannot fire in our backs. Many another sprawls, fallen on the soft forest floor.

"The height is taken, but the day is not yet done. Everywhere the French have taken prisoners to add to the tide of retreat. There is yet many a bloody encounter, but we get the enemy out of the forest and once they reach the open our waiting artillery does the rest. Our share of the work is done, the gruesome forest and its experience are ours.

"Most of us had lost comrades in the mad rush through the trees and brushwood. Indescribable were the scenes which followed when we found one another still alive.

"So take a rest, and while doing this listen to the humming whistling of our shells as they go over us on their way to a village in which the French have sought refuge. Soon buildings are aflame and the French are again on their way.

"You have done well," our corps commander said. "With you fellows I'd fetch the devil out of hell."

FORMER NEIGHBORS ATTEST WOMANS NAME

MRS. JULIUS LLOYD REFUTES STATEMENTS ATTACKING HER CHARACTER.

FROM FORMER TEXAS HOME

Bank and County Officials Express Surprise at any Insinuations.

Editor Telegraph: In the interest of justice and to set at rest some untruthful reports concerning myself and my affairs which have appeared in Dixon papers I would request a publication of the accompanying letters from my old home in Texas.

Judge Carl was at one time counsel against me in court proceedings so he is an unprejudiced witness, to say the least. (Signed) Mrs. Julius Lloyd.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 8, 1914. To whom it may concern:

This is to advise that we have known Mrs. J. A. Lloyd, (formerly Mrs. S. A. Waschka) for about four years and a half, during which time we have found Mrs. Lloyd highly satisfactory and in every other way. During that time Mrs. Lloyd has conducted herself as a lady in every sense of the word. Further, we have investigated from reliable sources and find her record has been the same for a period of over 20 years, previous to coming to San Antonio, and we unhesitatingly recommend her in a business way, as well as socially.

Yours very truly, W. F. McCaleb, President; Leon N. Walthall, Vice President.

Beeville, Texas.

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that I am acquainted with Mrs. J. A. Lloyd, who was formerly Mrs. S. A. Waschka, who lived in Beeville, Texas, for many years. I knew Mrs. Waschka and her husband, Mr. S. A. Waschka for about fifteen years, during which time they resided in Beeville, county, Texas. I knew Mr. S. A. Waschka quite well, having been frequently associated with him. Mr. S. A. Waschka was at one time Superintendent of the State Agricultural farm located within about four miles of Beeville, Texas, and Mr. Waschka held that position, I believe, up to the time of his death.

Mrs. Waschka is well known in the town of Beeville, and her reputation is good. I do not know anything whatever against her character. I believe that all good citizens of Beeville would testify that her character is good. T. M. Cox, County Judge, Bee County, Texas. J. D. Stout.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 8, 1914. Mrs. Agnes Waschka-Lloyd, Dixon, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Lloyd: Replying to your favor of Aug. 5, I am very much surprised, indeed, to learn that anyone should have brought in question your good name and character. I think it must be over-zealousness to win over you that has caused an unjust attack to be made on your good name. You will have no trouble in making an excellent showing in this regard. All that could be said against you is that you seem to be high-tempered; but many of us have this failing. I have known you a good while and will take pleasure in testifying to your good character and high standing. While we have differed about business, I have always found that you only wanted to be sure what was right and when you found what was right you were perfectly willing to be guided thereby. Command me when I can serve you, for it will be a pleasure to do so. Very respectfully, J. F. Carl.

TUBERCULOSIS DAY AT POLO NELL WEEK

TUESDAY WILL BE GIVEN TO A DISCUSSION OF THE WHITE PLAGUE.

The Woman's Club of Polo have arranged for a public meeting to be held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, October 13, in the M. E. church at which time Prof. Robert H. Babcock of Chicago will be present and speak on the following subjects:

"Etiology of Pulmonary Tuberculosis and its Prevention."

"The Relation of Throat Infection to Heart and Other Diseases."

Dr. Babcock is known all over Europe and America and justly celebrated for his ability as a diagnostician of diseases of the heart and lungs. He is consultant to the Cook county and other large hospitals in Chicago and his word upon a lesion of the heart of lungs is considered final.

The physicians of Ogle and surrounding counties will be eager to hear his address and will count the Polo women as extremely lucky in having secured his services.

Everybody is interested in the prevention of a disease so common as tuberculosis of the lungs and it is expected that all who can, whether in Polo or the vicinity, will attend and pack the house to its limit.

OUR NATIONAL SAFETY

school man told Mr. Cliffe that there was no better school man in the northern part of the state and that L. W. Miller had made for Lee county schools a statewide reputation, due to his untiring efforts and splendid ability.

Mr. Cliffe said that if the people of the thirty-fifth Illinois district chose to send him to the state senate he would do his level best to represent them in a way that would be a credit to himself and the district. He was representative from this district once and he made a very enviable record during that term. He stated that he would be and vote for all advanced legislation, if sent to the senate and also committed himself in favor of a constitutional convention and an improved work men's compensation law, a law that will protect both ways.

Show Tax Rates.

Mr. Cliffe gave the Lee Center people something to think about regarding the state administration. He showed the tax rate figures for the past few years. Commencing with Governor Tanner in 1897, the tax rate was thirty nine and six tenths cents. It has never been over that since and has been gradually decreased until the last three terms before the election of Dunne the tax rate under Deeneen was thirty cents.

The Democrats campaigned the state two years ago and said the Republicans were extravagant. They went to the election on a platform of economy. They used this argument for honey to draw the flies, and the flies came in swarms. "What have they done?" asked Mr. Cliffe. "They have raised the tax rate from thirty cents to seventy cents. More than double, that's what they have done. And who is getting it? What is being done with it? Are you any better off for all this money the state administration has collected from you and your fellow citizens of Illinois and spent on salaries for the jobs they have created for their friends?"

Boost for Sherman.

Adam Cliffe termed Lawrence Y. Sherman, the Republican candidate for re-election for United States Senator from Illinois, a wise statesman, a seasoned lawyer and a safe man to tie to. Sherman stands squarely upon the Republican platform and it is our duty to elect this man and defeat both of the Chicago candidates, Sullivan and Robbins.

All the high officials of the present state administration live in and near Chicago, within a radius of 60 miles. The Republican candidate for re-election to the United States Senate is a resident of Sangamon county, Illinois.

Mr. Cliffe named over the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom and gave a brief talk on what he knew personally of each man. He asked the election of the entire Republican ticket this fall.

they say they will do? Let us review the past history of the Democratic party. Let us take the word of Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, one of the big wheel horses of the party. What does Williams say for the party?

Senator Williams made the following declaration upon the floor of the United States senate on Wednesday, April 8, 1914. I will read what he said:

"The Senator from Iowa (Senator Cummins) is exactly right. The poor dear, old foolish Democratic party is going through the same game she can generally be trusted to go through with soon after she gets into power. We Democrats stand up here and quarrel with one another, and mass meetings are held in New Orleans by Democrats, and this thing occurred which would be absolutely inconceivable if it had not happened. —That is the Democratic party; that is its history; that is what led old Tom Reed to say in 1894 and 1895: 'You can not last long because you are not accustomed to governing anybody or anything; you can not govern the country; you can not even govern yourselves; you are incompetent.'"

That is what Mr. Williams thinks of his party.

How is Farmer Benefitted?

Now let us see how the Democratic party benefitted the farmer. The attention of the farmer is called to some of the provisions of the Underwood tariff law in so far as they relate directly to farm products. I desire to call the farmer's attention to certain reductions which that law made in tariff duties on agricultural products.

They put on the free list: Domestic animals for human food; corn, sheep, for human food, wheat, and wheat flour, and numerous other articles.

They took 9 cents off the duty on oats, which brought to the country a bushel of oats sells for 9 cents cheaper than he did under the Republican administration.

Now by putting the above articles on the free list let us see what the country lost in revenue, which they expect to make up by a war tax, a tax which is as unnecessary as the fifth wheel on a wagon.

From October, 1913, to July 31, 1914, there was imported into this country over 22,000,000 bushels of oats, which brought to the country a loss of over $2,000,000. During the same time there were imported over 13,000,000 bushels of corn, which brought a loss in revenue of over $2,000,000. The total loss in revenue from agricultural products placed on the free list from October, 1913, to July, 1914, was $12,404,133.

That's how the Democratic party aided the farmer. They not only permitted the foreign countries to import free of duty, but lost in revenue the enormous amount mentioned. Now they want the farmer to pay a war tax to help bring the party out of the hole.

Democratic Economy.

Now, if you please, let us discuss Democratic economy.

In their platform appeared this plank. Let me read it:

"We denounce the profligate waste of the money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation through the lavish appropriations of recent Republican congresses, which have kept taxes high and reduced the purchasing power of the people's oil. We demand a return to that fits a Democratic government and a reduction in the number of useless offices, the salaries of which drain the substance of the people."

Now let us see about this. After this solemn declaration of Republican extravagances and Democratic economy the Democratic party in congress appropriated $1,100,000, 999 more than any preceding Republican congress.

The expenses of every single department have been increased and many new positions have been created.

I will mention a few:

Salary of Comptroller of Currency increased from $5,000 to $12,000.

New Trade Commission, five commissioners, $10,000 each.

New Board of Appeals, created in the office of the Secretary of Interior $4,000 each.

All private secretaries to cabinet officers increased from $2,000 to $3,600.

Six Attorney Generals increased from $5,000 to $7,500.

With other increases it makes a total of $278,000. That looks like K. doing away with offices and cutting expenses.

Now let me compare the annual appropriations for the four years including 1912, 1913, 1914 and 1915.

Republican Administration.

1912 $995,739,462.72
1913 $988,353,340.41

Democratic Administration.

1914 $1,057,605,694.40
1915 $1,089,408,779.26

In other words, in the last two years, under the Democratic administration, the government has cost the people $163,851,661.53 more than the preceding two years under the Republican administration.

Now in conclusion let me repeat the tariff speech of Abraham Lincoln:

"If you buy steel rails from England, England has the money and we have the rails; but when we buy steel rails in America, America has both the rails and the money."

That was the greatest tariff speech ever made.

In northern France say the fiercest fighting of the war has taken place since Monday, but everything was calm last night. At one point the German cavalry broke through the allies' lines, but later they were dislodged with heavy losses.

REPORT BULGARS HAVE ATTACKED SERBS.

Paris, Oct. 8.—Vienna dispatches say there has been furious fighting between Bulgarians and Servians and that the Bulgarians have been victorious. If this be true it indicates that Bulgaria has joined the war on the side of Germany.

AEROPLANE DROPPED BOMBS ON PARIS TODAY.

Paris, Oct. 8.—A German aeroplane flew over Paris and suburbs at 9 o'clock this morning and dropped two bombs, one of which wounded three people.

GERMAN LOSSES WERE HEAVY BEFORE ANTWERP.

London, Oct. 8.—Canadian troops have arrived in the home waters.

An English correspondent says the Germans lost 20,000 men while crossing the river Nethe near Antwerp.
